

U.S. Small Business Administration

Your Small Business Resource

REGULATORY FAIRNESS HEARING

March 1, 2005
Anaheim, California

If you are a small business owner or a member of a trade association in Orange, Riverside or San Bernardino counties and you have encountered unfair or excessive enforcement of federal regulations by a federal agency, you are invited to voice your concerns to the SBA National Ombudsman at a U.S. Small Business Administration Regulatory Fairness Board Hearing in Anaheim on Tuesday March 1, 2005 from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m.

SBA National Ombudsman Michael Barrera, members of the Region IX Regulatory Fairness Board, representatives of several federal agencies and congressional staff members will be present to hear your concerns on issues such as repetitive audits, investigations, excessive fines or other activities by federal agencies.

Where: City of Anaheim, Gordon Hoyt Center
201 South Anaheim Blvd., 2nd Floor
Anaheim, CA 92805

When: Tuesday, March 1, 2005
Registration: 8: 30 am to 9 a.m.
Hearing: 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Help SBA evaluate how federal regulations affect your small business. This is your opportunity to be heard!

Due to limited space, it is essential that you register prior to the hearing date. Call Dace Pavlovskis at 714-550-7420, ext. 3601 in the Santa Ana District Office or email dace.pavlovskis@sba.gov

SBA programs and services are provided to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. Reasonable arrangements for persons with disabilities will be made, if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact: 714/550-7420 ext. 3601.

U.S. Small Business Administration Santa Ana District Office, 200 W. Santa Ana Blvd., Suite 700, Santa Ana, CA 92701